

THE DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

VOL. 11.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1861.

NO. 33.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

THE WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.

A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unequalled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The Weekly will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.

Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.

Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

SOMETHING NEW!

Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Photographs, and Ivorytypes.

H. L. GOODWIN,

TAKES pleasure in informing the public that he has returned to Frankfort, and taken the Gallery of C. A. Clarke, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and that he would be pleased to wait on those wishing perfect Likenesses of themselves or friends. He is confident he will be able to please the most fastidious in any kind of picture they may desire, from a life-size portrait to the smallest Daguerreotype or Ambrotype. Also, Daguerreotypes of deceased persons enlarged to the size of Life and Colored in Oil, and satisfaction given.

I am also prepared to make those gems of Photography, the Daguerreotype, which is truly the most durable small picture yet produced.

The Ivorytype, (made only at this gallery), is acknowledged by all to be the most beautiful style of Photography pictures ever presented to the public. In brilliancy of tone and color, delicacy of finish, correctness of likeness, and durability, it is far superior to the best miniature on Ivory.

CIRCULAR.

JOHN A. FLYNN,

PROFESSOR OF

Drawing, Writing, and Book-keeping.

H would respectfully inform the citizens of South Frankfort, that a class for Young Ladies will be opened on Monday, June 10th, 1861, at the residence of Rev. Mr. McMurtry, commencing at 8 o'clock, A. M., and closing at 9 o'clock.

A beautiful style, either in the Writing or Drawing Department, will be taught on the following terms: For Writing, including materials, $15 pr. m'th. For Drawing, including materials, $25 pr. m'th. Lessons in either department at the option of the pupil.

The Professor submits the following testimony: FRANKFORT, KY., May 22, 1861. We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that our children have taken lessons in writing, and the care of Mr. John A. Flynn, and we are happy to say their improvement has been highly satisfactory. We consider Mr. Flynn a kind and efficient teacher, and we therefore most warmly recommend him to all the citizens of Frankfort and vicinity who may require his services. James R. Watson, Ben. F. Meek, J. L. Rodman, Nelson Alley, W. C. Speed, John W. Pratt, James M. Todd, Frankfort, June 3, 1861-tf.

REMOVAL.

THE undersigned, having been compelled by the late fire to change his location, has removed his BOOT AND SHOE ESTABLISHMENT to the room lately occupied by Dwyer and Catlin, on Main Street, opposite to the Mansion House, where he will be pleased to see his old friends and customers and many new ones. He hopes by strict attention to business, and by charging reasonable prices, such as suit the times, to merit and receive a fair proportion of public patronage. L. STREIF. May 27, 1861-w.t.w.3c.

Fever and Ague,

from which mankind suffer over a large part of the globe, is the consequence of a miasm of vegetable decay. This miasm is evolved by the action of solar heat on wet soil, and rises with the watery vapor from it. While the sun is below the horizon this vapor lingers near the earth's surface, and the virus is taken with it through the lungs into the blood. There it acts as an irritating poison on the internal viscera and excreting organs of the body. The liver becomes torpid and fails to secrete not only the virus, but also the bile from the blood. Both the virus and the bile accumulate in the circulation, and produce violent constitutional disorder. The spleen, the kidneys, and the stomach sympathize with the liver, and become disordered also. Finally, the instinct of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the noxious infusion, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive violence. This is the Chills. But in this effort it fails. Then the Fever follows, in which the blood leaves the central organs and rushes to the surface, as if in another effort to expel the irritating poison through their great excretory—the skin. In this effort it fails, and the system abandons the attempt exhausted, and waits for the recovery of strength to repeat the hopeless effort another day. These are the fits or paroxysms of Fever and Ague. Such constitutional disorder will of course undermine health, as if it is not removed.

We have labored to find, and have found, an antidote, which neutralizes this malarious poison in the blood, and stimulates the liver to expel it from the body. It cures the Ague, and all its attendant disorders with perfect certainty. And it does more, or rather does what is of more service to those subject to this infection. If taken in season it expels it from the system as it is absorbed, and thus keeps those who use it free from its attacks; keeps the system in health although exposed to the disease. Consequently it not only cures, but protects from, the great variety of ailments which are induced by this malarious influence, such as Remittent Fever, Chills, Fever, Dumb, or Masked Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, Bilious Fevers, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Blindness, Toothache, Larynx, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitations, Painful Affections of the Spleen, Hysterics, Colic, Paralysis, and Painful Affections of the Stomach and Bowels, all of which, when arising from this cause, will be found to assume more or less the intermittent type. This "AGUE CURE" removes the cause of these derangements, and cures the disease.

This it accomplishes by stimulating the excretories to expel the virus from the system; and these organs by degrees become habituated to do this their office, and the disease is cured. It is a safe remedy for the whole class of diseases which are caused by the miasmatic infection, than any other which has been discovered; and it is as simple and important advantage to the public, which is, that it is cheap as well as good.

AN IMPORTANT DISCOVERY!!

For the cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS AND COLDS.

THE MAKORA ARABICA,

DISCOVERED BY A

Missionary while traveling in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Consumption should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are threatened with Consumption should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Bronchitis should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Sore Throat, Coughs, and Colds, should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

All who are suffering from Asthma, Scrophula, and Impurities of the Blood, should use the MAKORA ARABICA, discovered by a missionary in Arabia.

It cures Consumption.

It cures Sore Throat, Coughs and Colds.

It cures Asthma, Scrophula, and impurities of the blood.

This unequalled remedy is now for the first time introduced to the public.

It was providentially discovered by a missionary while traveling in Arabia. He was cured of Consumption by its use, after his case was pronounced hopeless by learned physicians in Europe.

He has forwarded to us, in writing, a full account of his own extraordinary cure, and of a number of other cures which have come under his observation, and also a full account of the medicine.

At his request, and impelled by a desire to extend a knowledge of this remedy to the public, we have had his communication printed in pamphlet form for free distribution. Its interest is enhanced by an account which he gives of some of the scenes of the Syrian massacres, which he obtained from those who were sufferers in that awful tragedy. This pamphlet may be obtained at our office, or it will be sent free by mail to all who apply for it.

We import the MAKORA ARABICA direct from Smyrna, through the house of Clean & Gyllipus, and we have always on hand a full supply put up in bottles, ready for use, with full directions to the public.

Price one dollar per bottle. Sent by mail, on receipt of price and 24 cents for postage.

GOOD NEWS!

TO the people of Franklin and adjoining counties, I would announce that I have employed a Gunsmith to carry on the

THE COMMONWEALTH.

FRANKFORT.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1861.

Gentlemen wishing to confer with the editor, will call on JOHN B. HERNDON, who has control of the Editorial Department of this paper during the session of the Legislature. He may be found during business hours at the office of the Commonwealth.

Office of Clerk of the Senate.

The Clerk of the Senate would inform the members of the Legislature and all other persons having official business with him, that his office is in the 2d story of the Commonwealth Office building, where he may be found, except when the Senate is in session, or he is otherwise necessarily absent.

The Senate and House are now organized, the officers are on duty, standing committees are appointed, and the whole machinery of government being in fine trim and good working order, we confidently look for earnest labor and good results.

The friends of the Union having a controlling influence in each branch, and realizing that the whole responsibility of the session rested with them, very wisely conferred together, and settled, by ballot, their individual preferences to be supported for each station, and when the time for voting came, there was no delay in making an election for each office.

Our readers are aware of the result of the balloting. Judge Buckner, of Lexington, presides over the House, than whom a gentleman of more sterling merit, or of more unswerving fidelity to the cause of national unity, cannot be found within the Commonwealth. Hon. Jno. F. Fisk, of Kenton, will lend dignity to the Chair as President of the Senate. To preside over the Senate of Kentucky at any time is a high privilege, but in times like these it is a mark of distinction which would honor the most favored of Kentucky's sons. On taking the Chair, Mr. Fisk referred to the great perils which menace the peace of the Commonwealth and the destruction of the National Government; to the great responsibility devolved upon the Legislature at a time when the eye of the whole nation was directed to its action, and said the Legislature had the peace, happiness, and welfare of the State in its hands. He believed it would prove equal to the occasion, and under the blessing of Heaven trusted that its labors would result in maintaining peace, quiet, and happiness to the State, and secure to the people the blessings of constitutional liberty—liberty regulated by law.

Of the clerical force of the House it scarcely becomes us to speak, yet our high sense of justice compels us to pay a willing tribute to the gentlemen who were more fortunate than ourselves. Clever, accommodating and high-toned, skilled with pen and records, we only regret that we didn't gentlemen of less merit to contend with, not disheartened however, like some politicians we think of, we will not, under the goadings of defeat, either break or fling away our trusted rifle, but, when the time comes, we will "pick our flint, and try it again."

As to our friends who fill the offices of Sergeant-at-Arms, (Dr. Smedley,) and Door-keeper, (Anderson Gray,) it is unnecessary to speak. Like their worthy co-laborers in the Senate, (Jack Priddy and Abijah Gilbert,) they come gracefully up to the Jeffersonian standard, their friends pronounce them "honest, faithful, and capable."

Of our faithful friend and predecessor, Johnson, Clerk of the Senate, what can we add beyond what his friends have said by their verdict: "Well done thou good and faithful servant," enter thou upon thy reward thy good works have achieved, and to our ancient friend, his experienced and able assistant, Dr. Hawkins, we can only remark, may you have a "good time" together, and reflect credit upon those who have chosen you to the position you now occupy.

We hail this commencement as a good augury for the harmony of this eventful session, and for the consolidation and efficiency of the great Union organization, which is following the flag, and keeping step to the music of the Union.

Beware of the Agitators.

The people must look out for all sorts of inflammatory appeals to their fears, passions and prejudices. The peace and tranquility of the State is being outraged by a ruthless gang of disappointed office-seekers, demoralized politicians, and political adventurers, who are moving heaven and earth to take Kentucky out of the Union, and inaugurate war in our midst. They seemed determined that Kentucky shall not have peace; they know that peace consigns them and their memories to the fate of Burr and Arnold, and they are determined, if they can, to rise upon the ruins of their country. The Union party in all candor and sincerity say to these plotters of treason and ruin, you can have peace if you will, and war just as quick. We desire peace, we pray for peace, and if we can't have peace peaceably, we will to a man fight for peace.

We call attention to the communication signed "Mercer," which speaks the sentiments of the people of that section of the country in regard to Brigadier-General Anderson where he is so well known, and where he lived so long.

A large drove of mules, purchased by Mr. Robert Pepper, of this county, for Uncle Sam, passed through our city on Saturday evening.

Letter from Mercer County.

HARRISONBURG, Ky., Sept. 7, 1861.

Editor Commonwealth:

We have just heard of the arrival of Gen. Robert Anderson in your city. Nothing could afford us more pleasure than this gratifying announcement. Some years ago, as Governor of the Military Asylum at this place, his modest and gentlemanly bearing, his many excellent qualities of the head and heart, commanded the respect and won the affection of our citizens, and these feelings were manifested in a remarkable degree and manner in the anxiety felt by all of us for his fate when at Fort Sumpter, when he and his gallant band were endangered by the traitorous assaults of the Confederate armies. His conduct, while in command at Sumpter, and his heroic defense of the Stars and Stripes, have endeared him to the people of Kentucky, and we rejoice that he has come back to us at a time when we sorely need the counsels of wise and good men. We know Gen. Anderson to be wise, patriotic and conscientious—a skillful and brave commander, a devoted Kentuckian, a Christian gentleman, and such a man can have no other thought than that of the welfare of his country, and the peace and honor of his native State. His presence will inspire confidence, and rally around the flag of the Union the good and patriotic people of Kentucky. We trust that he will be welcomed with that love and confidence which his pure character and eminent services merit, and that his earnest efforts in the cause of our glorious Union will be seconded in a manner worthy of that cause, his character and the character of the people of Kentucky. In this part of Kentucky, where the people know him, his name will be a tower of strength, and in every county it will awaken not only a love for the Union, but a determination to maintain and preserve that Union, and the priceless heritage of our fathers. Kentucky is Union to the core—thoroughly Union in feeling and sentiment, and if the secessionists in their mad and desperate attempt to take our State into the Southern Confederacy against the thrice expressed will of the people, we will show our Unionism in action.

MERCER.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL W. T. SHERMAN.—This gentleman will be second in command with Gen. Robert Anderson in the department of Kentucky, and we are gratified with the selection. Gen. Sherman resided in the South for many years, and knows and appreciates Southern temper and character. At the commencement of our political troubles, he lived in Mississippi at the head of a military and collegiate institution, and so high did he stand in the confidence and esteem of the people of that State, that he was tendered an important command by the Governor of Mississippi. The people of the Cotton States loved and honored him for his estimable qualities and great ability, yet he would not fight against his country. He turned away from the tempting offers of high position, and dedicated himself to the sacred cause of the Union, and he is now among the noblest defenders of the glorious old flag.

Of Gen. Anderson we cannot speak too highly. He is a Kentuckian, a patriot, and hero, and his great skill as a soldier, his elevated character as a Christian and gentleman, his earnest anxiety for the peace, the honor and glory of his native State, will command the confidence, and rally around him all the energies, moral and physical, of this brave and chivalrous people.

Capt. Prince, who accompanies Gen. A., is an accomplished soldier and gentleman, and eminently fitted for the important position he occupies.

Gen. Anderson returned to our city on Friday evening from a brief visit to his relatives in this vicinity. His reception at the Capital Hotel was a real old fashioned cordial affair—such an occasion as a dignified and modest gentleman always enjoys. Our leading citizens, the members of the Legislature, and a number of ladies, called to pay their respects to one who, in the hour of personal peril, was true to his country's flag. All honor to Sumpter's brave and intrepid defender!

In response to a serenade from Italy's fine Cornet Band, Gen. A. appeared at the window, returned his thanks, and retired, amidst the cheers of his many friends and admirers.

A SAD REFLECTION.—The saddest part of all our trouble is to know that some of the fair women of our land are smiling upon the unholy cause of secession, which has already been the cause of countless evils and woes, filled our happy land with all the horrors of civil war, and threatening to drench Kentucky with the blood of their fathers and brothers and friends. The women of this country, above all others, should work, and plead and pray for the safety and success of our government, for that government has thrown around her the amplest protection, and filled the land with peace, happiness, prosperity and security.

The Hops at the Capital Hotel are increasing in interest. Stearns' String Band discoursed most eloquent music. The ladies are very fascinating, and our host of the Capital furnishes all the et cetera that go to make up a pleasant occasion. Remember, Tuesday and Friday evenings. Parties continue during the session.

The lovers of fine music will bear in mind that Mr. Robert Heller, the distinguished pianist and composer, will appear with his Grand Concert Company, at the Capital Hotel Hall, on Wednesday evening next. A delightful entertainment is anticipated.

For the Commonwealth.

The State Penitentiary.

NUMBER FOUR.

In my former communication, No. 3 I stated briefly what had been done by legislative enactments for the moral and religious instruction of the inmates of our State prison since its origin. An error in that communication made it necessary to repeat in more detail the facts upon that subject. It was two hundred and fifty dollars, instead of $750, as printed, the amount set aside for moral instruction by the act of 1829. This act was subsequently adopted in the Revised Statutes, and reads thus:

"§ 1. The keeper of the penitentiary shall procure one sermon to be preached to the convicts, by a minister of the gospel, each Sunday.

"§ 2. He shall, moreover, cause the convicts who have not learned reading, writing and arithmetic, to be taught at least four hours every Sunday.

"§ 3. The whole expense of such sermons and teachings shall not cost more than two hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

"§ 4. The books belonging to the library in the penitentiary shall be given out to convicts and returned every week, so that they may be well taken care of.

At the time this act was adopted, there were in confinement about 180 convicts. Allowing $100 for the sermons, would leave less than $1 a head for the instruction ordered for each convict—a sum, to say the least of it, exceedingly cheap, if not parsimoniously small. In the accounts rendered by the various clerks in the keeper's annual reports during the partnership system, this item is seldom mentioned, but it is presumed the keeper's always charged the State the full amount of the provisions of this act. The sermons were preached by ministers of the various churches of the town and county, and $2 invariably paid them as we believe. The other section of the law, with the exception of that of distributing a few worthless books, has been a dead letter for years. The prisoners, however, have been permitted to read such books, periodicals, and newspapers as they could procure without let or hindrance.

Humanity, to say nothing of the moral duty upon the subject, demands of the Legislature a prompt revision of this whole subject. Many of the inmates are men of some cultivation, and need greatly the means of instruction to be derived from the use of good books properly distributed among them.

The financial history of the institution will be the subject of our next number.

The interest to outsiders in Legislative proceedings is greatly lessened by the passage of a resolution to the effect that all resolutions shall be submitted to the House without debate, and the House shall otherwise decide. This is pretty severe on gentlemen who have a disposition to talk.

RELEASED AND RETURNED.—The Richmond (Ky.) Messenger, of Friday last, says that Messrs. Branton, Black and Collins, who were arrested in Whitley county a few days since whilst taking a drove of horses toward Cumberland Gap, were taken to Camp Dick Robinson for trial and have all been released, their horses being restored to them.

The Home Guards of this city were out on dress parade—Capt. Mill's command—on Saturday evening. They are a fine looking body of men, and are well drilled. Italy's Cornet Band contributed to the display by stirring music.

Our friend Dury has revived the Kentucky Whig, a valuable auxiliary in the great work of arresting the tide of secession, and has put the patronage on an exclusive cash basis.

A Fight at Lexington, Mo.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Sept. 2.—The following account of a recent event in this city is furnished to the St. Louis Republican:

A large secession force surrounded this town on both sides of the river last week, and arrested a number of Union men, among them Ex-Governor King, Judge Ryland, and Wm. S. Lells. On Friday last, at the instance of the gentlemen above named, a flag of truce was sent us by the Rebels, which resulted in a conference about a mile from town, between Col. Reed and Capt. Shelby on the Rebel side, and Maj. Breckor, Capt. Graham, and Lieut. Brown on the Federal side. The Rebels demanded the unconditional surrender of the fort, which was flatly refused.

During the invasion of the town by the Rebels, a good deal of skirmishing took place in the streets and in the woods on both sides of the river. The Federal troops destroyed the ferry house on the north side of the river, when a fight occurred between a small force under Lieut. Brown and the Rebels, in which four or five of the latter were killed and a number wounded, and several of Brown's men wounded.

On Thursday, Lieut. Brown, with twenty men, was attacked on the streets by a company of secessionists under Capt. Withrow, in which the latter were completely routed and Capt. Withrow taken prisoner, after being severely wounded.

On Friday, all further attempts to reduce the place were abandoned. Col. Reed treated with his command toward Independence, and Colonel Reed went towards Fort Scott, leaving Capt. Shelby with about 600 men at his old rendezvous. Taber creek, 8 miles east of Lexington, and a considerable secession force in the bottom between Lexington and Richmond. The forces thus left have cut off all mail communication. Col. Reed took with him King, Ryland, Field and other prisoners. The whole loss in all the fighting on the rebel side was eight killed besides the wounded, and on the Federal side one was killed and several slightly wounded. The Federal troops burned a warehouse and several frame buildings where the Rebels had encamped, on the north side of the river.

From St. Louis.

St. Louis, Sept. 6.—The steamers Champion, Hannibal, and Meteor, with property belonging to Rebel citizens, were seized at the wharf to-day and confiscated under the recent act of Congress.

Editor of the Commonwealth.

Upon the reception of a (bogus) dispatch yesterday that the Federal army was cut to pieces, it was sickening to observe the fiendish exultation of the secessionists over the triumph of treason and the dishonor of the time-honored flag. Union men never exult over the destruction of human life, even the death of their enemies. Every aspiration of their souls is for the preservation of the glorious work of our fathers, and the honor of the flag, yet they never manifest that fiendishness, malice and intolerance which is too often seen in the countenances, the words and acts of the deluded and desperate followers of secession.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 7, 1861.

Kentucky State Lottery—For the Benefit of the Town of Frankfort.

Wood, Eddy & Co., Managers, (successors to R. France & Co., of Baltimore, Md.)

This firm has consolidated all the lotteries, and are now the only managers of legalized lotteries in the United States or Confederate States. The firm has ample funds to cash all prizes sold. The Shelby College Lottery is merged into the above, and it will not be run at present though the bonus must be paid to the trustees according to the contract until the charter expires. I acted as agent for the above Lottery seventeen years in the city of Lexington, under the management of Dudley S. Gregory, Gregory & Monry, and others, during which time I sold many hand some, comfortable and magnificent prizes, and I now hope the people of Frankfort and vicinity will sustain a lottery for their own benefit—the establishment of your water works and other privileges. You enjoy drinking the pure water from the Cove spring, one and a third mile distant, where a powerful fountain, supplying a copious abundance of the healthful beverage to nourish and invigorate God's creatures. This Lottery pays the official—of your city the handsome sum of ($3,000) three thousand dollars per annum. These are a few named benefits of the Lottery.

The drawing takes place twice a day at Lexington, Ky., at 11-10 A. M. and at 5-10 P. M., Kentucky time. Call or send in your cash and secure a pretty prize these hard times. We know the rivers are not dry; that the blood has not dried up the circulation; and we know, too, that there is just as much money now as heretofore if the people would open their eyes and trade liberally to insure a profitable return for their investments. Non-intercourse ruins trade. Then, to do away with hard times, open a free, untrammeled trade, an honorable peace, and prosperity will crown your efforts. Kentucky's strict neutrality will no longer be prayed for. Try your luck in the tickets of this great lottery, and if you fail at first, do not despair of success, for if you persevere you will ultimately be successful. The lamented Henry Clay said, "If your rifle miss fire, pick your flint and try again!" and I say buy a ticket, and never give up the ship till the topmost sail dips. He who never ventures, never made more than a living by hard labor. I will visit Georgetown, Paris, Harrodsburg, Lawrenceburg, Rough and Ready, Hillsville, Shelbyville, Christiansburg, Milan's Depot, and Bridgeport. Frankfort is my headquarters. For tickets apply to

To the Young Men of Kentucky!

BY the authority, and for the service of the Government of the United States, I propose to organize in Kentucky a REGIMENT OF CAVALRY, to serve three years, or during the war—to consist of Ten Companies—each company to contain not less than eighty-four nor more than one hundred and four rank and file. Horses and all equipments to be furnished.

Volunteers owning good horses can have them appraised, mustered into the service, and paid for by the mustering officer. The Captains and Lieutenants are to be elected by the companies respectively. Captains of companies will report to me at the Gall House in Louisville as soon as practicable. No company must be moved from its point of organization until ordered into Camp. Transportation to the point of Rendezvous will be furnished. None but active, vigorous men, and men of steady habits will be received.

Captain Richard W. Johnson, of the regular army, has been detailed to act as Lieutenant Colonel. I intend to make this regiment in all respects equal to the best drilled corps in the regular army.

I know this call will be patriotically answered. The soil of Kentucky has been wantonly invaded. J. S. JACKSON.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 5, 1861.-3t.

LOOK AT THIS!

I WOULD inform my old patrons and the public, that I am again at the "BOURBON HOUSE," in Paris, Ky., and ask a continuance of the liberal patronage heretofore received.

Mrs. R. THURSTON.

P. S.—To all those owing the late firm of R. THURSTON & SONS, by note or account, I would say that I will exchange either for country produce at market price.

B. B. SAYRE'S SCHOOL.

Will be in session in South Frankfort, if not prevented by the unhappy state of the country, forty weeks beginning with the 30th September.

It is expected that this school will be reduced to half its former size. In such case less time will be required for recitation in the school room. The hours of confinement there will be fewer, while more study will be done by the students at their homes.

The few boarders expected can be well accommodated in the neighboring families.

Charge for tuition, per school year, $75, to be paid in advance; otherwise, in every case, to be secured by note with one good name.

Cephalic Pills

CURE

Sick Headache

CURE

Nervous Headache

All kinds of Headache

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack, immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels—removing Constipation.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The genuine have five signatures of Henry C. Spalding on each box.

Sold by Druggists and other Dealers in Medicines.

Bellingham's celebrated Stimulating Ointment for the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING OINTMENT

is prepared by Dr. C. P. Bellingham, an eminent physician of London, and warranted to bring out a thick set of in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or tow hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "Ointment" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Ointment" (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (direct), securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to, or address,
